

Date

Subtheme

Start Time: Choose an end time.

End Time: Choose an end time.

Curriculum Area:

Vocational : Post-Secondary Education and Training

Materials:

Adapted powerpoint
Good/bad visuals
Chart to sort

Objective(s):

Students will participate in community career based training opportunities in order to gain skills in:

- janitorial tasks
- retail
- food service
- customer service

Introduction:

Teacher will connect vocational lesson to current theme.

"All jobs are different. Today, we are going to talk about appropriate work behavior."

Body:

- Read powerpoint w/ students and watch videos.
- Following the powerpoint, have students sort the work place behaviors into two categories: appropriate (or good) and inappropriate (bad).

Closing:

After students have sorted the different behaviors, the teacher will check for student understanding by having them perform one or several of the appropriate behaviors (e.g. make eye contact and shake hands).

Accommodations:

Adapted text

Video modeling

Differentiated content

Leveled prompting

Communication systems

Multiple Intelligences:

☒Linguistic

☒Bodily Kinesthetic

☒Logical-Mathematical

☒Visual-Spatial

☐Musical

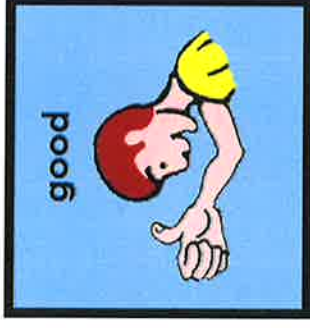

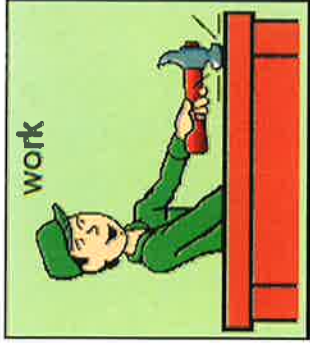

☒Interpersonal

☒Intrapersonal

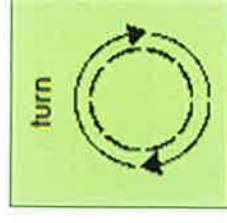

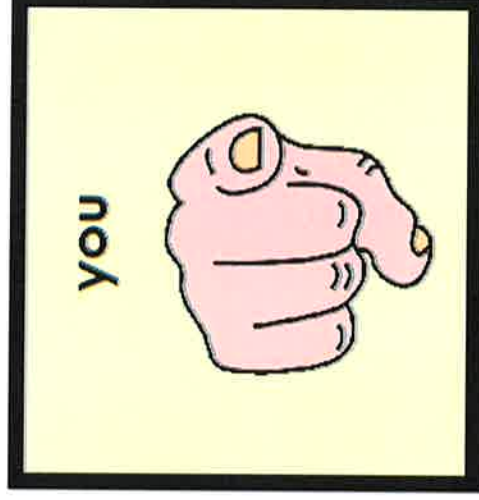

☐Naturalist

Common Core Standards (<http://www.corestandards.org/read-the-standards/>) :

Job Etiquette

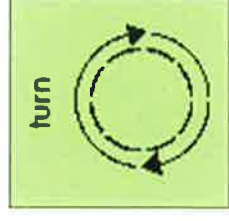

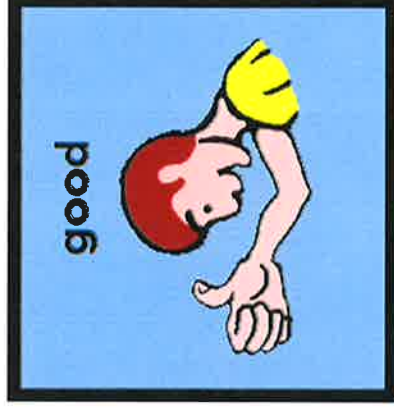

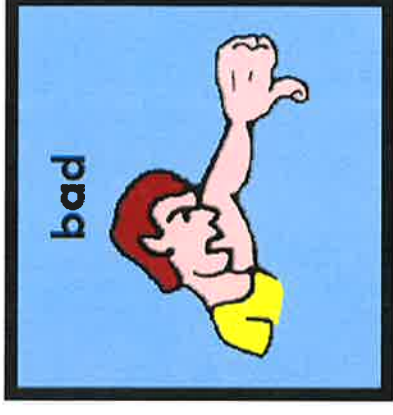

What do you do at work?

feet on desk

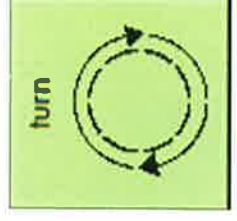

Good or bad work behavior?

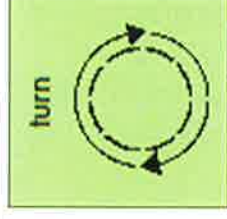

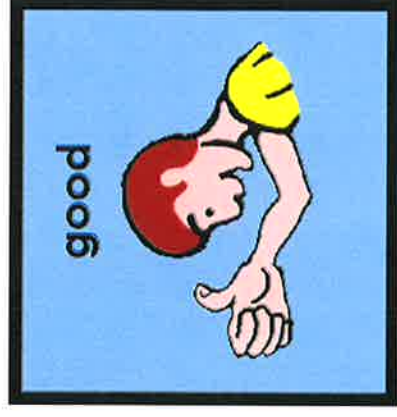

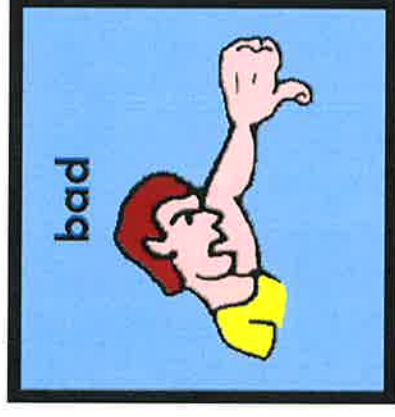

dancing at work

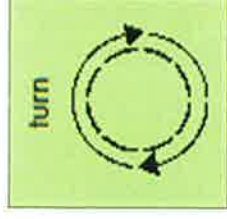

watch

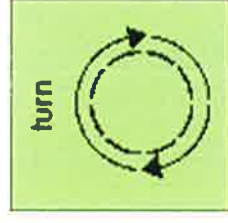

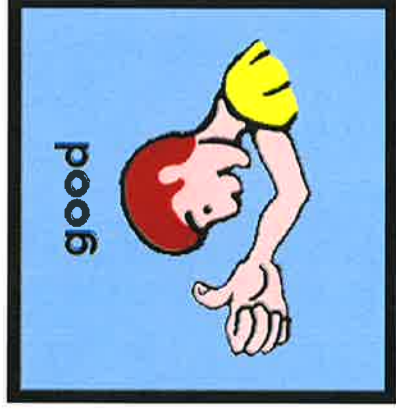

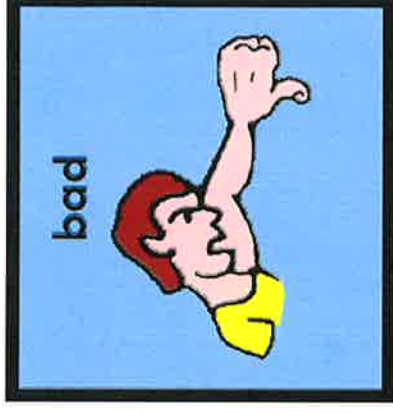

Good or bad work behavior?

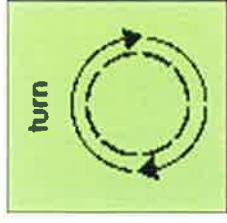

washing dishes

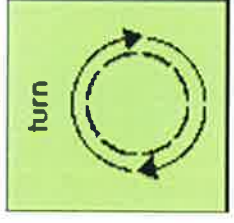

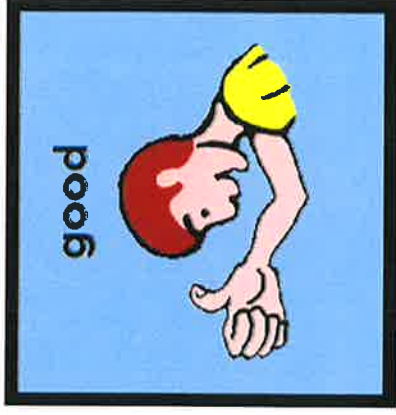

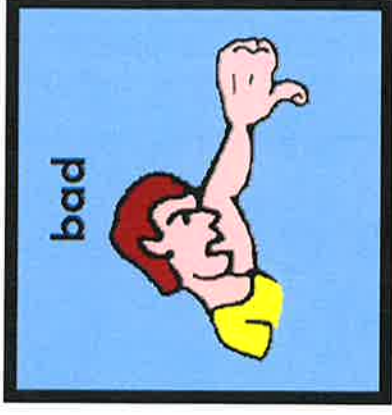

Good or bad work behavior?

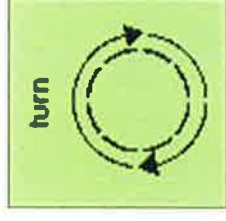

yelling at others

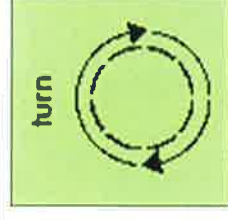

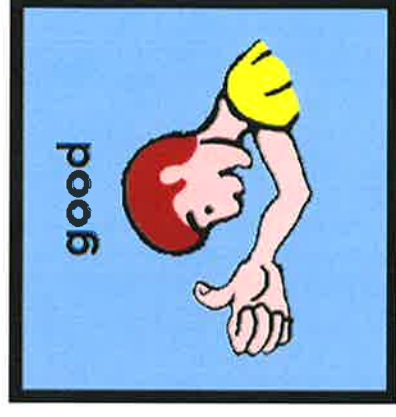

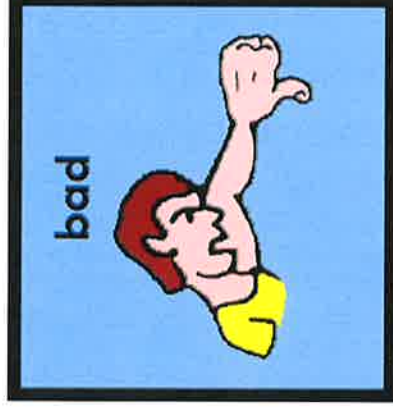

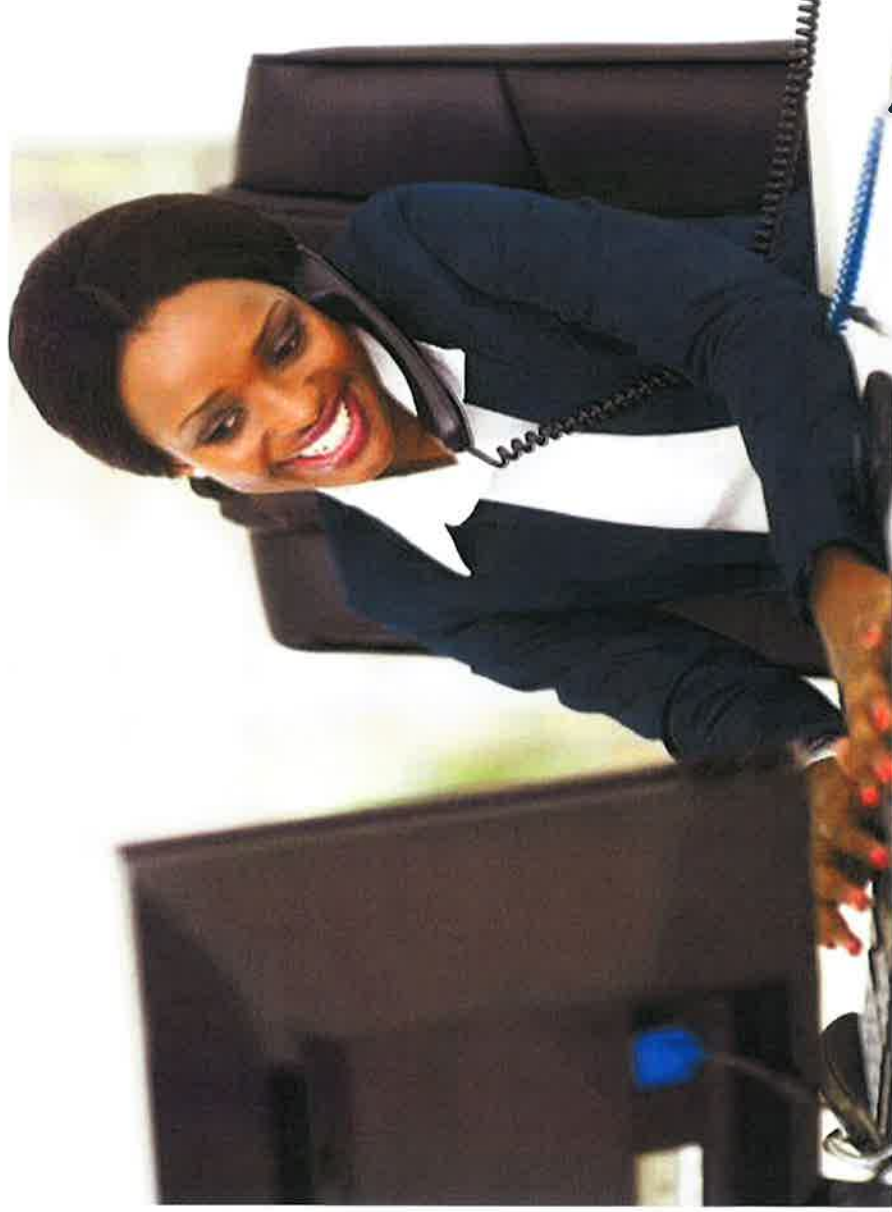

Good or bad work behavior?

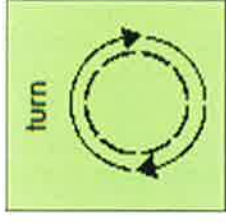

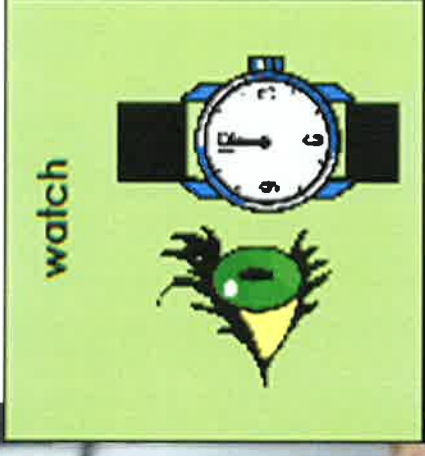

speaking politely to customers

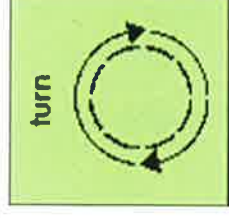

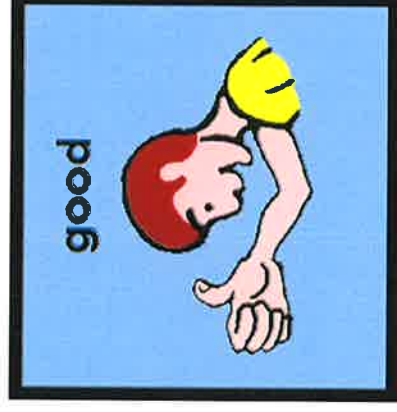

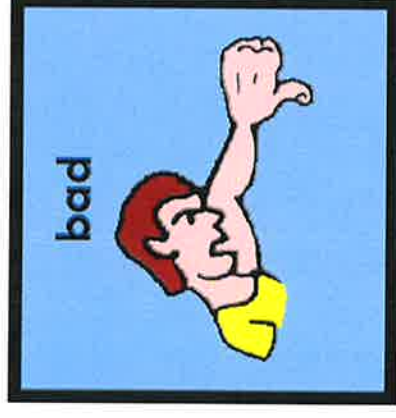

Good or bad work behavior?

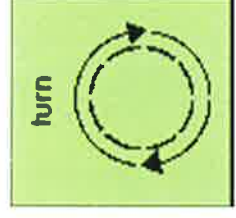

shaking hands

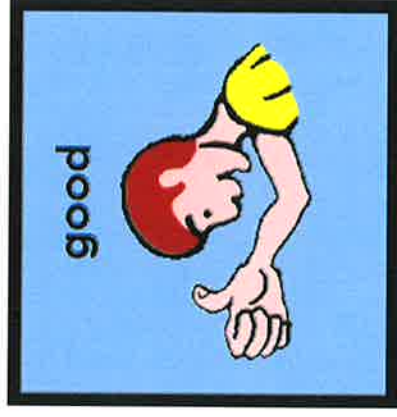

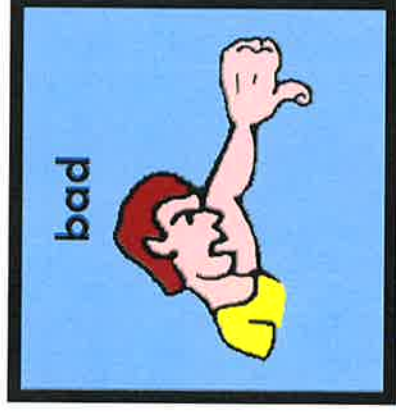

Good or bad work behavior?

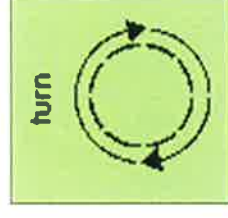

snoozing

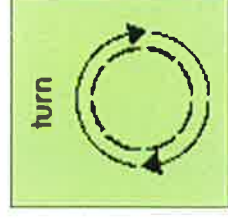

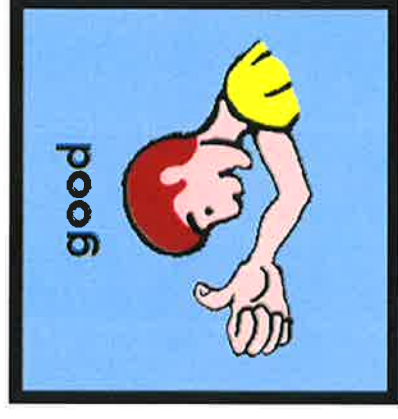

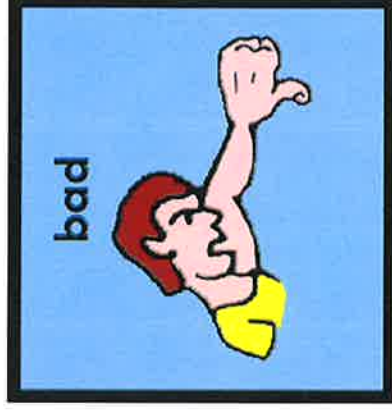

Good or bad work behavior?

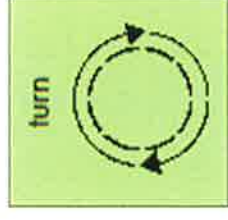

teasing co-workers

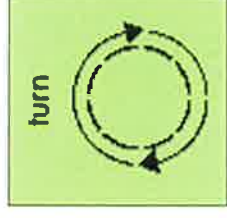

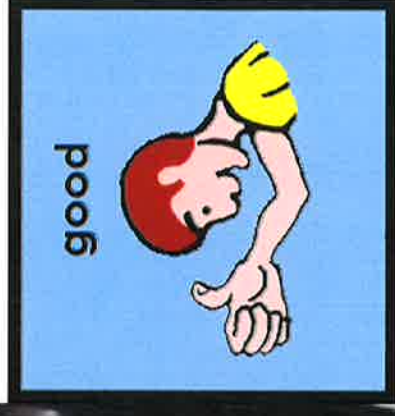

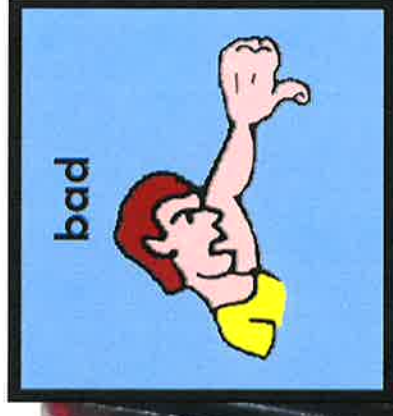

Good or bad work behavior?

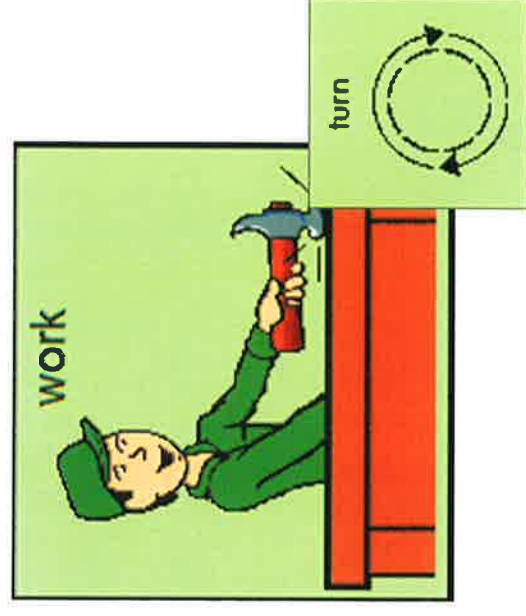

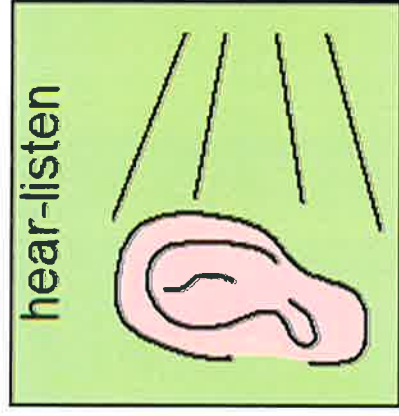

greeting customers

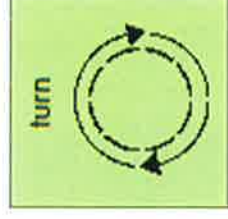

Good or bad work behavior?

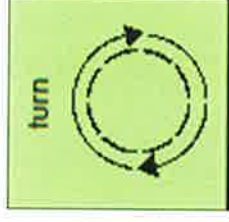

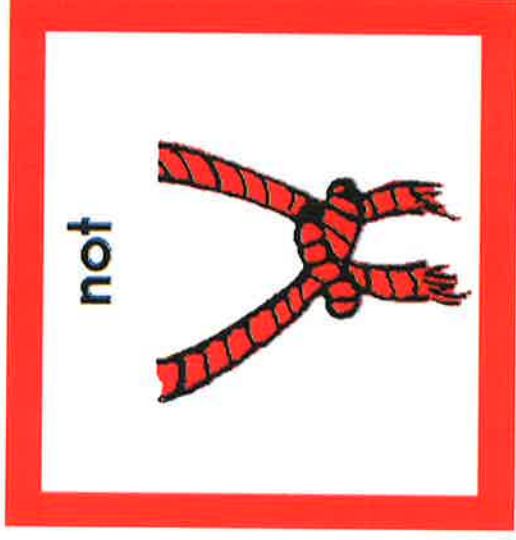

We have different rules at different jobs

You can listen to music at some jobs.

Some jobs do not allow music.

At some jobs you have to wear a uniform.

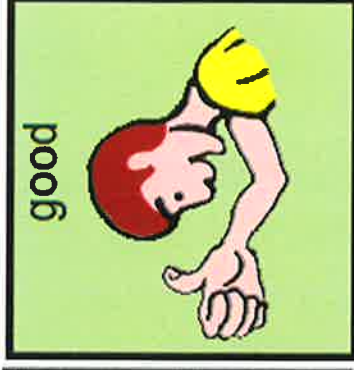

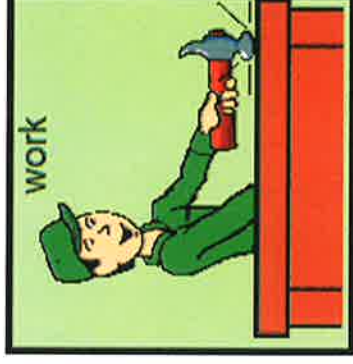

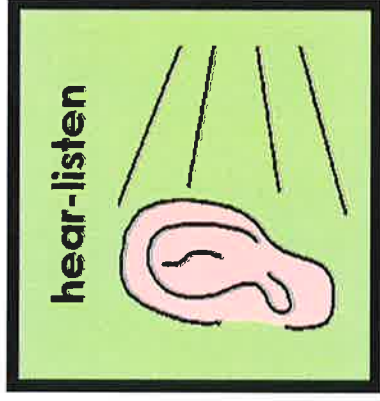

Some jobs you do not have a uniform.

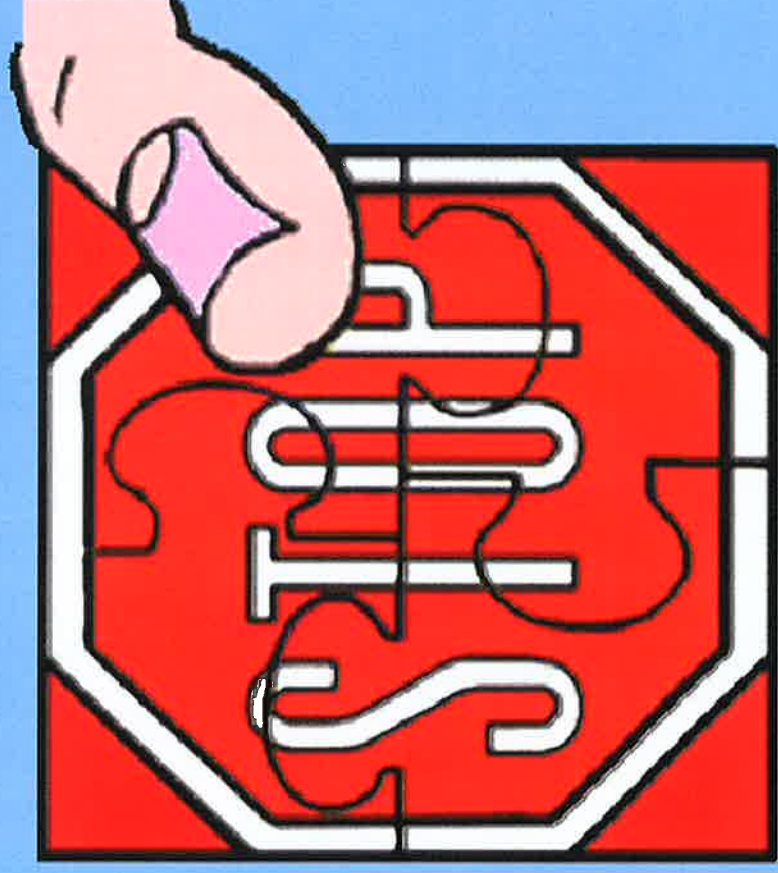

Listen to your boss to find out what to wear.

Listen to your boss to find out what the rules are.

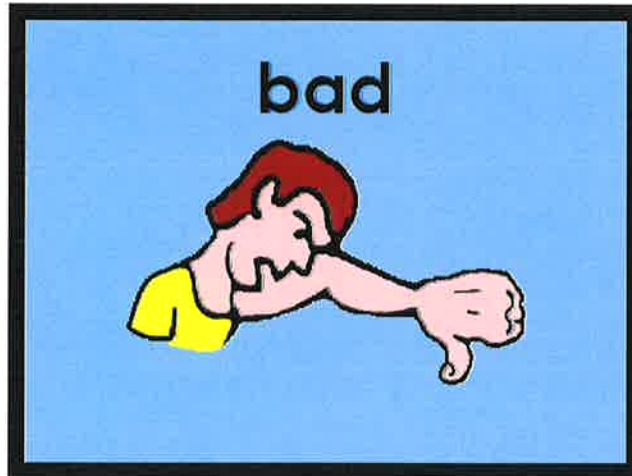

FINISHED

Is the behavior good

Good or bad for work?

feet on desk

dancing

washing dishes

yelling

polite to customers

shaking hands

feet on desk

sleeping

greeting customers

