

DO YOU NEED FREE INTERNET AT HOME FOR YOUR DC STUDENT?

Mayor Muriel Bowser wants to make sure your student has internet at home during this virtual school term.

DC Government will be paying for residential internet service for eligible households provided by Comcast and RCN.

Beginning Tuesday, September 8, DC Government will begin reaching out to SNAP and TANF eligible households with PK3-12th grade students enrolled at DC traditional and charter public schools, according to the following schedule:

Tuesday, September 8 - Text Message at 3 pm

Wednesday, September 9 - Phone call at 3 pm

Thursday, September 10 - Email at 3 pm

Tuesday, September 15 - Text Message at 11 am

Wednesday, September 16 - Phone call at 11 am

Thursday, September 17 - Email at 11 am

Please contact your student's school for additional information.

- DC will pay for at home internet (Comcast Internet Essentials or RCN Internet First) for approximately 25,000 households with PK3-12th grade students enrolled at DC traditional and charter public schools that receive SNAP or TANF benefits.
- Comcast and RCN both recognize SNAP and TANF as eligibility requirements for their low-cost internet programs.
- DC Government will not disclose household SNAP or TANF participation.
- Comcast or RCN will then contact the household to initiate the internet installation process.
