

Policy

St. Coletta of Greater Washington is committed to fostering an inclusive and equitable environment for all members of its community. Discrimination of any kind is strictly prohibited.

St. Coletta does not discriminate against students on the basis of race, color, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation), religion, national origin, native language, intellectual or athletic ability, academic achievement or aptitude, or disability status, including special education needs.

Similarly, all employees, applicants for employment, vendors, contractors, and visitors are treated with respect and fairness, without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation), marital or parental status, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, family medical history, political affiliation, military or veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable local, state, or federal law.

St. Coletta of Greater Washington is dedicated to ensuring that all programs, activities, and services are administered in a manner that upholds these values of equity and non-discrimination.
